

O Crucified Redeemer

text:

Timothy Rees (1874-1939)

Tune: LLANGLOFFAN

Traditional Welsh hymn melody

Moderato

1. O cru - ci - fied Re - deem - er, whose life - blood we have spilt, to
2. We hear your cry by an - guish, we see your life out - poured, where
3. The groan - ing of cre - a - tion, wrung out by pain and care, the

6

1. you we raise our guilt - y hands and hum - bly own our guilt. To -
2. bat - tle - fields run red with blood, our neigh - bours' blood, O Lord; and
3. an - guish of a mil - lion hearts that break in dumb de - spair; O

10

1. - day we see your pas - sion spread o - pen to our gaze; the
2. in that oth - er bat - tle, the fight for dai - ly bread, where
3. cru - ci - fied Re - deem - er, these are your cries of pain; O

14

1. crow - ded street, the coun - try road, its Cal - va - ry dis - plays.
2. might is right and self is king, we see your thorn - crowned head.
3. may they break our sel - fish hearts, and love come in to reign.